When it comes to Miller jackets – it's all in the details.

Our jackets are constructed with quality materials and superior craftsmanship. No detail is overlooked – starting from the material selection process to a precision cut, to finished hems and reinforced stitches.

Both the INDURA® Cloth and Combo jackets allow for the attachment of our Bib/Apron accessory, providing additional protection either along the chest or legs.

Our Leather Jacket features strategically placed expandable leather for added mobility and a tapered athletic cut, enhancing both user fit and comfort.
